

REMARKS

The present Supplemental Amendment amends the claims to more particularly describe the present invention and to further distinguish over the prior art cited in the Office Action mailed March 15, 2011. The amendments make it clear that the Alder, Bohrer and Cordery references cited in the Office Action do not render obvious, alone or in combination, the present invention.

Should the Examiner have any questions regarding this Supplemental Amendment, or the underlying application, he is encouraged to contact the undersigned.

CONCLUSION

All pending claims in the present application are believed to be in condition for allowance. Thus, an early indication of allowance of this application is respectfully requested.

No fee is believed to be necessary in connection with the filing of this Supplemental Amendment. If a fee is due, however, please charge it to the deposit account of BRUNDIDGE AND STANGER, P.C. Deposit Account No. 50-1417.

Respectfully submitted,
